

CARNEGIE BACKING TAFT'S PEACE PLEA

Calls President Foremost
Apostle of Peace in World.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Andrew Carnegie, the man who recently gave $10,000,000 to further the cause of international peace, today is the warmest advocate that can be found of President Taft's new policy of peace through arbitration agreements. Not in years has anything so aroused the enthusiasm of the "Laird of Skibo," and he is in almost daily communication with President Taft, whom he characterizes as "the foremost apostle of peace that the world has ever seen."

In an interview today, Carnegie gave full approval to the views recently expressed by Lord Admiral Charles Beresford, that America and England, working together, could come near to making war between great powers impossible.

"Assuming," says Carnegie, "that our race has abolished war, as it has private war—dueling—the effect upon other nations would be overwhelming."

Brotherhood of Peace.

"It is only what I have expected. That one power will be followed by others and after the other. The fact is that if this treaty is adopted by the Senate overwhelmingly, it will so impress the world that other nations will do as the one nation has done already—ask to be allowed to enter the brotherhood of peace."

"What nation has led the world," said Carnegie, "in government of the people, for the people and by the people? Where is the nation in which any man's privilege is every man's right under the law? We are the first child of triumphant democracy and we are false to our mission if we do not only occupy the leading position but push on to further toward perfection, for there is no limit to man's ascent on the earth."

Dewey May Live to See.

"I see Admiral Dewey is quoted as saying, 'I am for arbitration heart and soul. I don't believe, however, that we shall see, in our day, substantial peace established on the basis of a treaty that is for a naval officer that is a remarkably creditable statement. It is the best thing I have heard from Admiral Dewey in many a day. I hazard the prediction that, if this treaty combining the English-speaking races to peace be executed, Admiral Dewey will himself live to see a realization of his wish."

"Assuming that several of the nations have agreed to such a treaty and that it was broken, we would immediately stop the mails. We would consider that members of the human family had violated the rules and proprieties of the club, and decline to have further intercourse with it. This would be a much more severe punishment than that of war."

We Have No Enemies.

Asked whether he thought the fact that the Government had succeeded in mobilizing only 10,000 troops in Texas in two weeks argued against America's preparedness for war, Carnegie replied:

"If it were only 1,000 soldiers I would consider the nation invincible and armed against all possible enemies. We have no enemies. A gentleman from Japan declared to me today that if there is one nation in the world Japan wants to be friendly with, that nation is our own."

Wealthy Whip to Aid "Votes" Play

NEW YORK, March 24.—When "Wyoming," disguised as a Western cowgirl, dashes on the stage at the Broadway Theater next Tuesday afternoon, in the big Suffrage benefit, her mount will be a winner in the novice class as the last horse shown, led by a millionaire whip for the occasion.

Miss Adelaide Norton, the actress, who impersonates Wyoming, one of the five States where women vote, will ride astride. The name of the horse is withheld, lest it reveal the name of the millionaire convert to the cause.

Among other interesting characters in the series of fourteen "acting tableaux" in Augusta Kidder's play, "The Pageant of Protest," are the pioneer women of East and West. The former will be represented by Mrs. William Brown, daughter of Robert Ingersoll, in the person of "Priscilla." The latter will be shown by Miss Chrystal Eastman as the "Woman Behind the Plough." Miss Sophie Curtis, a member of Sorority, appears as Betsy Ross in the act of sewing the thirteen stars on the flag. Mrs. Martha Sufferin, as Barbara Frietschie, will wave the flag. Mrs. E. Butler, worth as Susan B. Anthony, Mrs. E. Osgood as Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and Dr. Helen C. Knight, as Lucy Stone, will wear adornments that belonged to these famous suffragists.

The impersonator of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy has not yet been announced.

Mrs. Lula B. Gilchrist Buried This Afternoon

The body of Mrs. Lula B. Gilchrist, wife of Dr. Edward Y. Gilchrist, of this city, was removed from the receiving vault at Rock Creek Cemetery and interred in the private burial lot of the family at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Gilchrist's death on February 25 was the result of burns she received at her home on that date.

FIRE CAUSES HITCH IN CADETS' PLANS

Annual Drill at Ball Park
May Have to Be Transferred.

Unless the new grandstands and bleachers at the baseball park are completed by the early part of May the annual competitive drill of the High School Cadet Corps will in all probability be held on the White lot. The annual regimental drills and sham battles are always held on the ellipse back of the White House, but the competitive drills for the Allison Naylor prize are held on two succeeding days at the baseball park.

Application was made today, as is usual, to officials of the baseball club for the use of the park on some date in the first two weeks of May. Answer has not been received, but intimation is made that workmen will be busy on the stands so that they will be ready when the Nationals return for home games.

If the drills are held on the White House grounds it will mean that the yearly problem of tickets will be eliminated and that instead of the program running more than two days all the companies in the regiment can be put through the program on one day. The one disadvantage, according to school officials, is that the spectators will be forced to stand.

Court's Birthday Revives Memories

Reminiscences of old-time Washington days are today fresh in the minds of pioneer officials of the District Supreme Court, revived by the occurrence yesterday of the forty-eighth anniversary of the organization of the local courts. Of the employees of the court when it convened March 23, 1863, only one, Return J. Meigs, Jr., lives. He was assistant to his father, who was the first clerk of the court, the position now held by Col. John R. Young. The initial group of justices are in the following list: Daniel K. Carter, of Ohio, was the first chief justice of the court, his associates being George P. Fisher, of Delaware; Abraham B. Olin, of New York; and Andrew Wylie, of the District of Columbia. Their commissions are signed by President Abraham Lincoln and Secretary of State William H. Seward. Court rooms now used by Chief Justice Claiborne and Justice Wright were the only judicial benches of the early days.

A Great Purchase of Women's Suits Smart and Distinctive Models for Spring Values worth up to $25.00

Sale Price $10.98

We have just concluded a purchase of women's new spring Tailored Suits that sets a new standard of value-giving in stylish, high-class suits at the beginning of the season. Among the leaders of the great New York Outer-garment makers is the firm from whom we have secured this lot of spring suits. The continued cold weather caused several customers to countermand orders given several weeks ago, and seeking a quick outlet he sold us several hundred garments at an immense reduction from regular cost.

As a matter of fact, we paid so much less for them than their actual cost that you will scarcely pay half value. They're all this season's most desirable styles—fashioned of various materials, including the following:—

French Serges Broadwale Diagonals Imported Fancy Mixtures
Imported Novelty Materials Dressy Plain Diagonals
Fancy Diagonals Mannish Mixtures

The most approved models—latest shape coats on correct lines. Some with satin sailor collars, tailored designs with embroidered manish coat collar and cuffs. Others with new satin lapels, and many finely tailored suits trimmed with braid or satin; as well as the severely plain tailored styles.

Latest designs in skirts—some plain with box plaited front and back panel, plaited models, side trimmed effects, and close fitting models. Choice of leading spring colors, including violet, light tans, dark reseda, blonde, Copenhagen, navy, fashionable grays, bronze, and plain black.

Sale of Trimmed Hats $7 to $10 Values at $5

Tomorrow's sale of Trimmed Hats at FIVE DOLLARS offers convincing evidence of our ability to provide unusual values in millinery at moderate cost.

The styles are a triumph to the skill and ability of our milliners, who have produced for this sale the most wonderful collection of beautiful hats ever offered for the money. We have succeeded in crowding into these hats all the smartness, and quality usually found in hats selling for $7 to $10, and as no other store can possibly equal them for less than these figures, your savings may be counted on this basis.

To describe the styles and trimmings is impossible. There's a hat to suit you in the display, no matter how your preference runs.

Included are the new braid hats, in all the new shapes, among them the popular round hats and sailor effects, Helmet shape hats, as well as many large shapes. Wings, fancy feather effects, velvets, fruit and flowers form the trimmings, and all are arranged in the prettiest way.

Every new spring color is represented, among them the stylish reds, black-and-white combinations, Nacre shades, new blues and navy.

Misses' and Children's Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats—Of Milan and Java straw. Trimmed with satin ribbon and silk pom-poms. In a large variety of small shapes. The untrimmed hats are of rough and tuncan straws, in large and small shapes. Values up to $2.00.....
